

Information and consent: What you need to know

Consent Fact Sheet

You do not have to take part in this research project. Taking part is “voluntary”, or your choice.

You can say “stop” at any time or you can point at the “stop” symbol.

If you have questions, you can either ask the researcher, your supporter, or point at the orange question mark.

Contact information:

Email: adlib-project@york.ac.uk | Department of Education | University of York

During the workshop, researchers will record the words that you say (“audio”), and take pictures and videos.

We might use your words, photos or videos in different ways. For example:

- Publications
- Presentations
- Future analyses
- Online

We may need to change your words a bit when we use them. For example, we may need to make what you have said shorter.

We will make sure that no one knows who said what. Your words, photos or videos will be “anonymous”.

On the consent form you can tell us more about how you will let us use your information.

If you are under 16, or if you need support, your parents or carer can help you fill it in.
